ORDER:

Smt. A. Varalakshmi, learned counsel, representing Sri D. Ramalingaswamy, learned counsel for the writ petitioners has stated that the writ petition has become infructuous. That it is so is evident from the order dated 13.06.2005 in W.P.M.P.No.8990 of 2005 in W.P.No.6756 of 2005, wherein it was recorded that the learned standing counsel appearing on behalf of the 2nd respondent Andhra Pradesh State Council for Higher Education reports that permission has already been granted to 50 to 60 colleges and the colleges have been sanctioned to the places where there are no colleges functioning. Since the process has been completed and permissions have been granted to the colleges, interim relief as prayed for by the petitioners cannot be granted.

In the light of the above circumstances, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
